Selectmen's Meeting

WINDMILL MEETING

Selectmen and the new Windmill Committee members met to discuss the goals of the committee. John DeCosta, acting chairman, told them that presently the town by-laws prohibit a structure of more than 35 feet in height which is not practical for an electric power generating windmill. He asked that the committee study potential benefits and problems of wind generated power and come back with recommendations to the By-Law Committee which is presently engaged in a line-by-line review of town by-laws.

Lois Bassett, Town Clerk, said that if wind generation of power is to be allowed, then a zoning change must be presented to the town meeting to allow it. Jonathan DePina said that he had checked with the Dartmouth Building Inspector and found that town is waiving the height restriction on windmill towers to allow windmills.

James M. Shepley will serve as chairman of the Windmill Committee; Dawn A. Phillips as clerk. Other members are Lois K. Bassett, George L. Correa, Clifford D. Tripp, Arthur L. Hovasse, Robert H. Adams. The late Jonathan DePina was also a member of the committee.

HOUSING/DEVELOPMENT SEWER PROPOSAL

A proposition made by Frank Sylvia at the September 2 meeting to allow a hook-up of sewer lines from the lots of Hitching Post Road into the Housing Authority lines was presented to the Housing Authority. Mr. Sylvia proposes to do this via a 40 foot conveyance of land to allow a road from the Elderly Housing land to the Sylvia development. Chairman Roy Andrews said that the Authority might allow this provided the town would be responsible for both the sewer lines and the road. Other members of the Authority also saw a private road as a potential problem to the Authority. They said that after a developer has sold his lots, then any further future problems are not his but are the property owners'. The Authority would not have funds to pave the connecting road and would not want future responsibility for the sewer pipe under it. Mr. Bernard Talty said that a swale which surrounds the site of the building would have to be carefully protected because it has been designed to keep the site dry.

Selectman James Huntoon saw the plan as having possibilities beyond the connection of the Sylvia development. He said it was the potential of opening up the Park Street area and beyond.

It was agreed that the burden of providing the necessary plans and legal authorization should be on the developer who would benefit. A meeting with Frank Sylvia to outline conditions was suggested by Selectman Huntoon.

Town Clerk's Notice CARPENTER'S LICENSES

Although the State Building Code Commission was not funded for the Fiscal Year 1982, it is still necessary to file an application for a "Construction Supervisor's License" prior to OCTOBER 1, 1981 if you wish to reserve your so-called "grandfather's" rights. Applications for the license are available at the Town Clerk's Office. Should you be unable to file an application it was suggested to me that you file a letter of intent with the Executive Office of Communities & Development (the department that is receiving the applications) of your intention to comply with the regulation and that you do wish to be licensed under the "grandfather's" clause.

Town Loss

Editorial, D.C.J.

The loss of Jonathan T. DePina, Sr. who died suddenly on Wednesday saddened Mattapoisett residents who knew him as a warm personality and a man most generous with civic service. Mr. DePina served both Mattapoisett and Rochester as Building Inspector and has served on many other Mattapoisett committees such as the Zoning By-Law Committee, the Soil Conservation Committee and the newly formed Windmill Committee.

Jonathan DePina's appearance belied his 67 years. Since his retirement from the Donald Chase Construction Company, he has remained as active as many a man in the prime of his working life.

These post retirement years were in the service of Mattapoisett and Rochester. It is safe to say that, as Building Inspector, he has been widely admired by all who required his services as a fair man who knew his job well.

There are a few men who never grow old. Jonathan was one of these. His youthful enthusiasm and energy in behalf of the town were our great gain. We appreciated these generous services and the townspeople will miss him greatly both personally and professionally.

Letter to the Editor

Once in a while, during our lifetime, we are privileged to meet a truly fine person. A person of impeccable integrity and honesty. A kind, thoughtful and generous person. I have had that privilege. Jonathan T. DePina, our Building Inspector, was a totally unselfish person. He was constantly giving - never taking - and only a few of us are aware of how completely dedicated he was to the Town of Mattapoisett. I worked with Jonathan for twelve years and more than that, he was a very dear friend. I shall miss the sound of the keys rattling that always preceded his coming into the office; the quiet debates that we had over different issues and the warm comradeship

ULTRACOAL 2200™

HM-2200 Fireplace Model

Fits your fireplace like a glove

Unlike many coal/wood combinations, ULTRACOAL 2200 isn't just a variation on a theme. It has been built from the ground up to serve the special requirements of coal burning. What's that mean?

Coal Burning Made Simple...

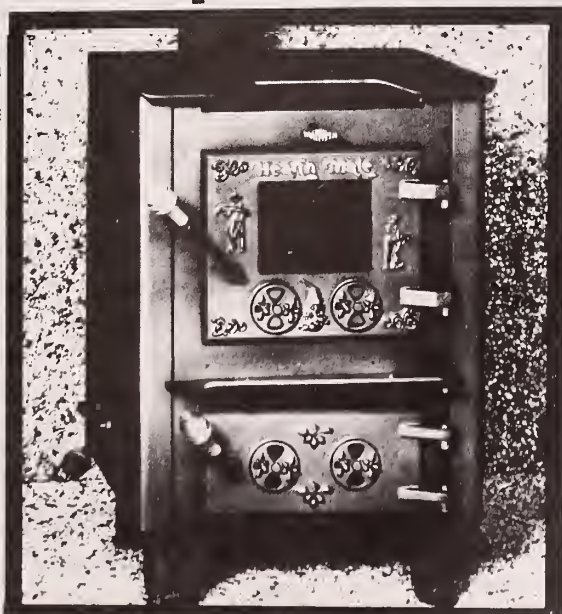

Take its extra heavy coal grate and exclusive pivoting grate shaker. Add our easy-to-clean ember shelf, self-contained ash drawer, and final coal burning is no longer a messy, hit-or-miss affair. And, ULTRACOAL can turn a single load of coal into 24 hours of heat.

Coal Burning Made Beautiful!

ULTRACOAL isn't just a beautiful stove. With its amazing, self-cleaning VYCOR® glass door, it also provides a continuous, unobstructed view of the fire.

Coal Burning Made Safe

With its rugged 1/4" low-carbon steel construction, ULTRACOAL carries Hearth Mate's 5-year warranty on materials and craftsmanship.

In addition to the main event, with Auctioneer Cora Russell doing the honors, Ellie Blackburn will be in charge of the White Elephants; Jim Harris, books; Jessie Peacock, flowers; Madeline Boutilier, bakery goods; and Clara Morgan, toys. The Rev. Donald H. Finley and members of the Youth Fellowship will be operating the refreshment stand during the day.

Donations of older items, collectibles and furniture are needed for the auction. Donations are tax deductible. No stoves, refrigerators or console TVs will be accepted.

A consignment arrangement will be made on a strictly confidential basis. The auction committee recommends the donor receive 65 percent and the church 35 percent of the selling price. Buddy Meyer, auction coordinator, may be contacted at 763-8697 for further information.

Meyer has a full committee working to make this once-a-year money raising event a success. An outstanding expense this year, in addition to the cost of fuel oil,

SMU Continuing Education

NEW TESTAMENT WRITINGS COURSE

What were the common forms of literature available to the writers of the New Testament? That question will be the focus of a nine-session course offered by the Division of Continuing Studies of Southeastern Massachusetts University starting Tuesday, September 22, at 7:30 p.m. The course, "Literary Forms in New Testament Writings", is one of several offerings in the non-credit Personal and Professional Development Program.

mind," said Ed Parr, instructor for the course. "The more people enter into the first century literary culture when reading the New Testament, the easier comprehension will be," Parr added.

Parr is the former chairperson of Bishop Stang High School's religion department and recently completed a master's program at Providence College. He will teach at Providence College in the religious education department during the summer of 1982.

To register for the course, for which there is a fee, contact Rose Arruda, program director, SMU, at 999-8787, or Ed Parr at 994-9401.

Change in Driving Tests

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES
STREAMLINED DRIVER TESTING

Motor Vehicles Registrar Richard E. McLaughlin has announced a new driver licensing procedure which eliminates much of the paperwork involved in licensing new drivers and, he said, will drastically reduce the waiting time for tests. At some Registry Branches the waiting period is up to 10 weeks because of a shortage of Register Examiners.

The new system will go into effect on Tuesday, September 15.

Basically, the written Learner's Permit test will be eliminated and replaced by an oral quiz administered as part of the actual road test.

The Learner's Permit itself will be issued to all applicants displaying proof that they have attained 16 years of age.

Then, at age 16 1/2, (provided the applicant has satisfactorily completed a Driver Education course) or age 17 (without certificate) the individual will make an appointment for the combined road test and oral quiz.

Upon satisfactory completion of the test, the applicant will be immediately issued the photographic driver's license.

This system, McLaughlin said, is essentially the same as the Registry employed from its inception in 1903 until 1964. He added, "The written test was good, but it is now far too costly in time, money and manpower for our reduced circumstances."

The revised system covers the ordinary regular passenger and light vehicle operators, the so-called Class 3 licenses and motorcycle applicants. Heavy vehicle license applicants, Classes 1 and 2 will continue to complete the written Learner's Permit test, as will foreign language applicants.

Additional advantages of the new system will be elimination of repeat trips to the Registry, paper shuffling and reduced postage costs, the Registrar said.

350 years of the nation's most interesting history and folklore. And, with the variety of special events scheduled throughout the fall and into the winter, a visit to any of the stops along the trail will be a rewarding and enjoyable one.

Plymouth's hosting an outdoor art show (September 12-20) and a concert by flat-picking champions (September 13).

September in Rhode Island finds events at both major cities making up a major stop on the trail. In Newport, the International Boat Show is scheduled for September 10-13. In Providence, the Florentine Faire, a Renaissance celebration, will be held September 11-13 and September 19-20.

In Massachusetts, there's Southeastern Massachusetts University's popular celebration of traditional music, the Eisteddfod, that runs September 25-27.

October is crowded with activities, from the International Jumping Derby (Newport) on October 1-4 to a traditional celebration of All Hallow's Eve (Plimoth Plantation) on October 31. In between, there's the Liberty and Union Day celebration in Taunton on October 31.

There's also the Bourne Bay Scallop Festival on October 9-11 in Buzzards Bay and the Chowder Festival in Mystic Seaport on October 10-12. Two more mouth-watering events are Ocean Grove's Octoberfest -- with German bratwurst -- on October 10 and the Usquepaug Johnnycake Festival on the Richmond-South Kingstown line (October 24-25)

The arts are well represented this month, too. The popular musical "Annie" arrives in Providence for a brief run (October 6-11) and many marching bands are featured in Somerset's Musictown Festival (October 12). In addition, artists and craftsmen will display their work in Scituate (October 12) and Martha's Vineyard (October 10-12).

Two November events involve Thanksgiving traditions. In Old Sturbridge Village, a turkey shoot is scheduled for November 21, while a public Thanksgiving dinner is planned for November 26 in Plymouth, where it all started.

Also in November, the Rajko-Hungarian Gypsy Orchestra and Dancers are scheduled to appear in Providence (November 20). And there will be a Children's Field Day at Mystic Seaport on November 28.

Christmastime activities begin on December 5-6 with a Christmas Arts and Crafts Fair in Fall River. Later in the month, you can enjoy "Christmas at Blithewold", in one of the loveliest mansions in Bristol, Rhode Island (December 5-13) or "Christmas in Newport", a month-long celebration including concerts, house tours and tree lightings. For more Christmas lights, visit the beautiful displays at Edaville Railroad and La Salette Shrine during the holidays. And as a final Christmas treat, you can see the classic ballet, "The Nutcracker", in Providence December 25-27.

So ends the Americana Trail's fall/winter season of special events. For a free calendar of events with more detailed descriptions of the activities, just write: Bristol County Development Council, Inc., P. O. Box 831 -- Dept. CE, Fall River, MA. 02722.

Arthritis Support

The Fall River Arthritis Support Group will begin its fall meetings on Tuesday, September 22, at 7:00 p.m. The group will meet at the Truesdale Clinic, 1030 President Avenue.

The Support Group is a self-help vehicle for arthritics, family members, friends and anyone interested in learning more about arthritis and related rheumatic diseases. The past few meetings have featured health care professionals addressing methods of treatment, nutrition and needs common to the arthritic.

A service of the Massachusetts Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, the program is open to the public free of charge. Persons wishing additional information should contact Marilyn Abel, Director of Patient and Community Services at the toll-free number 1-800-882-1464.

The Arthritis Foundation is a voluntary health association dedicated to seeking the cause, prevention and cure of arthritis, our nation's number ONE crippling disease.

Guest speakers for this meeting include Debra Olsen, Occupational Therapist at Charlton Memorial Hospital, and Dr. Ronald Rappaport, rheumatologist. The group tries in the juried show. The annual event is sponsored by the Plymouth Guild, Inc.

More than 10,000 persons are expected to tour the Art Show which will run through September 20. Many of the art items on display will be for sale.

The public will have an opportunity to take home four works of art through a special drawing at the end of the show.

The four include a color photograph donated by John Droege called "Early Morning Mist", framed by Golden Gull Studios; a seascape oil painting donated by Jo-Anne Buttner, entitled "Morning Haze"; a tan stoneware lamp donated by Bill Bell; and scrimshaw jewelry donated by Dan Casey.

Demonstrations at the Art Show will include oil painting by Sam Evans, working in clay by Bill Bell and Catherine Nissle, ceramic sculpture by Jean Walker, scrimshaw by Marylyn Hassett, spinning and weaving by Dorothea Elkin, bunka embroidery by Beverly Perry, pressed flower arranging by Lynn Carden, and watercolor and pen and ink by E. Marie Francis.

Prizes will be awarded in painting, oil acrylic, watercolor, drawing, graphics, abstract, representational, photography and crafts categories. Special prizes include the Popular Choice Award, selected by show-

pets are wonderful

PETS: TWO'S—EVEN THREE'S—COMPANY

What are lovable, playful and double the fun? Two, even three, furry family members.

Giving your pet a new pal to play with can offer every family member a double dose of happiness and good health. If you've been meaning to bring a new pet into the family, summer can be one of the easiest times to do it. This is because warmer temperatures mean more time to spend outdoors training and getting to know your new family addition.

Introductions between new and old pets take about a week or two and can be a snap. One easy way to let an older pet know that company's coming is to set an extra bowl at meal times.
Also, be sure to cuddle the old-timer just as much as the newcomer, if not more.

Pet authorities agree that kittens and puppies can be easily added to any family as second pets. Size differences between older and younger pets should be considered, though. A friendly nudge from a large, full-grown dog could land a frisky pup across the room.

It won't take long for two pets to become the best of friends, says Roger Caras, author, naturalist and special correspondent ABC News.
"In fact, don't be surprised to soon see the two curled up together!"

Cranberry Cooking Contest

The Massachusetts Cranberry Festival and 4-H Fair at Edaville Railroad in South Carver will be the site of the fifth annual "Make It Better With Cranberries" cooking contest on October 3, 4, 10, 11 and 12.

Sponsored by the Cape Cod Cranberry Growers' Association, the contest is designed to encourage the creative use of cranberries in everyday cooking.

Good cooks from near and far are invited to bake up a storm of entries using fresh, frozen fresh or processed cranberry products. Winners will receive cash awards, cookbooks and trophies. Additionally, a Best of Show Award will be made each day and a Sweepstake Award will be presented to the contestant with the most overall points.

Contest categories include cranberry pies, cookies, breads, cakes and a special category for the imaginative use of cranberry in everyday cookery. "The Make It Better With Cranberries" contest is scheduled for the first weekend. First prize winners from

Hanging Plant Tips

DO-IT-YOURSELF

TIPS FROM STANLEY

WHERE TO PUT YOUR HANGING PLANTS

One of the finest continuing trends in home decoration is plants. As our outdoor activities draw to a close with the changing seasons, however, we question where to put the hanging plants.

Your flowering plant has been hanging all summer from a Decorative Plant Hanger, with hammered brass finish, strong enough to hold up to a 16 inch pot.

Or, it could have been a Heavy Duty Outdoor Plant Hanger in an attractive black finish (first zinc-plated for weather resistance) with a swivel feature for uniform plant growth.

Now, you can move your plants indoors with a great variety of plant hangers and hooks to choose from. One of the most graceful and serviceable combinations to purchase is the "Hang-A-Plant"™ (patent pending), a plant hanger which converts up to eight inch diameter pots into decorative plant hangers in minutes. It
